

Annual Report 2011

*Building the leader within,
One Scout at a time.*

Prepared. For Life.™

Facts & Figures

Every week our Scouts recite an oath pledging themselves to a duty to God, country and self. Our Scouts are trained to be of strong character, to be environmental stewards and active citizens.

Scouting provides young people with a safe, structured and nurturing environment, helps them learn and discover, while instilling strong values and a deeper appreciation of family and community. It goes beyond merely teaching skills and promoting teamwork. It encourages our youth to do their best and reinforces the importance of helping others.

The values and skills young people learn in Scouting build a solid foundation for their life. Men who were Scouts as boys are more likely than men with no Scouting experience to:

- ☑ Graduate from college (35% vs. 19%)
- ☑ Earn higher annual household incomes ($80k vs. $61k)
- ☑ Value family relationships highly (81% vs. 74%)
- ☑ Have lifelong friendships (89% vs. 74%)

In addition, more than 8 out of 10 men who were Scouts say that there have been real-life situations where having been a Scout helped them be a better leader and react to crisis situations.

390 chartering organizations were partnered with Connecticut Yankee Council to provide programs to 430 individual units.

17,087 young people were registered in our programs at the end of 2011.

Cub Scouts – 7,087 boys led by 1,761 registered adult volunteers in 174 Cub Scout Packs.

Boy Scouts and Varsity Scouts – 4,475 boys supported by 2,190 registered adult volunteers in 147 Troops and Teams.

Venturers and Sea Scouts – 2,089 young men and women along with 281 registered adult volunteers in 58 Crews and Ships.

Explorer Posts – 947 young men and women learned valuable career skills through the guidance of 236 adult volunteers.

Learning for Life Groups – 2,489 young men and women participated in our classroom-based character education programs.

It began with a promise.

In the 2005-2009 Connecticut Yankee Council Strategic Plan, we stated we would "... define a program for all of our camps ... focusing again on Scout attendance at camp via an expansion of camping capacity at Sequassen for the Boy Scouts and building a camp at Deer Lake for the Cub Scouts."

Through our Capital Campaign and the incredible support of our volunteers, we delivered on that promise! We are proud of our Board, for leading to a successful Capital Campaign, our volunteers for supporting the construction of our camp, and our professional staff for its commitment to opening that camp in time for the summer camp program in 2011.

Grows strong with an oath.

"Scouting's Journey to Excellence" is the BSA's new Council performance recognition program designed to encourage and reward success and measure the performance of our units, districts, and councils. It is replacing the Centennial Quality Awards Program as a means of encouraging excellence in providing a quality program at all levels of the BSA.

In 2011, we improved our performance across all seventeen points of the Journey to Excellence, finishing as a Silver council, improving from Bronze in 2010. This improvement is due to the commitment of our units, volunteers and professional staff in the areas of Friends of Scouting, Membership, Program, Camping, Advancement, Community Service, Commissioner Visits, and Council and District Leadership. We would like to express our thanks to each and every one of you for your support and your role in making 2011 such a success.

In our strategic plan, we also committed to rebuilding our Scouting program in Bridgeport. We are keeping our promise to the young people in Bridgeport with a rebuilt program serving 270 youth, as well as serving more than 600 Scouts in New Haven.

What's more important to a Scout than fire and knives? Record attendance at summer camp means we're keeping our promise.

A Letter from the Council Key Three

Even when faced with a challenging economy, we are proud to share that we kept our promise of being strong fiscal stewards of our operating budget and for the third straight year, balanced our budget. This enables us to continue to reach over 22,000 young men and women ages 6 to 21. Our vision is to ensure that each one is able to reach their full potential.

Continues with your pledge.

We would like to thank everyone who contributed to Friends of Scouting in 2011, and for the time they dedicate to make that much needed difference. We also thank the late Richard English for a major gift that will provide significant annual funding for improvements to our camps in perpetuity.

We are looking forward to 2012! We promise to continue providing outstanding programs throughout the year for more families. Please share your ideas and partner with us to provide an unmatched opportunity for all young people of our communities and a lasting investment in our future. Scouting makes the world a better place.

Sincerely,

Doug Machin

Cub Scouts. Do Your Best. Have Fun Doing It.

The best way to find out what you do best is to try it. Swing a bat. Pitch a tent. Build a Pinewood Derby Car. Cub Scouts are at that magical age where everything is new and possible and most importantly, fun. They live in a world of "firsts" — first home run, first campfire, first checkered flag — where their game plan is their imagination. Their most valuable reward, the friends they make for life and a parent's proud smile. These are invaluable experiences that can be had in Scouting. These are life lessons that transform today's Cub Scouts into tomorrow's Boy Scouts.

Boy Scouts. Be Prepared. For Anything.

Most boys avoid obstacles. Boy Scouts seek them. They live for any opportunity to display their abilities while learning new skills. Camping is fun. But surviving a downpour in the middle of the night, that's an adventure. Cooking over a campfire is fun. Learning which wild berries are edible is survival. Spending a weekend in the woods is fun. Breaking camp without leaving a trace is admirable. These are invaluable experiences that can be had in Scouting. These are life lessons that transform today's Boy Scouts into tomorrow's leaders.

Cub Scouts and their parents designed, built, painted and raced more than 6,200 Pinewood Derby Cars in 2011.

Boy Scouts worked with adult mentors to earn more than 7,998 skill- or activity-based merit badges. The most popular merit badge was Swimming.

Arrowmen in the Owaneco Lodge worked for three years to collect soda can tabs for the Masonic Tabs for Tots program which uses the tabs to raise funds for the Shriner Hospitals for Crippled Children and Burn Victims. In October, the Lodge concluded the collection with over 100 pounds of tabs to be converted into scrap aluminum for the Hospitals.

Order of the Arrow. Honor Society.

The Owaneco Lodge, Order of the Arrow recognizes Scouts and Scouters who best exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in their daily lives. Arrowmen are known for maintaining camping traditions and spirit, promoting year-round and long-term resident camping, and providing cheerful service to others. Order of the Arrow service, activities, adventures, and training for youth and adults are models of quality leadership development and programming that enrich and help to extend Scouting to America's youth.

Urban Scouting. Providing Opportunities.

Scouting has always thrived in suburban communities where volunteers and resources may be more plentiful, but our commitment to the young people living in the neighborhoods of our Council's inner cities has never been stronger. Each week, Scouts meet after school in classrooms to work on advancement, learn new skills and gain leadership experience. Our Council remains committed to ensuring that every young person has the opportunity to be a Scout.

Venturing. Challenge Yourself.

Life is a series of tests. Shooting the rapids. Rappelling a cliff. Writing a resume. Each one can be a setback, or a chance to shine. Working as a team, the young adults in every Venturing Crew and Sea Scout Ship welcome the opportunity to pass these trials. A series of successes that build one upon another. Every person playing their role. No one more important than their partners. No challenge achievable without cooperation. These are invaluable experiences that can be had in Scouting. These are life lessons that transform them into tomorrow's responsible adults.

Exploring. Career Development.

Exploring is a unique career exploration program for young men and women ages 14-20. Our program provides an ideal link between the academic environment and the real world. Young people are mentored by caring adults in police, fire and medical departments while they benefit through character development, building self-confidence, leadership growth, social development, unique career opportunities, networking and internships, volunteer community service and group collaboration and teamwork.

Volunteers. Making Scouting Happen.

The Connecticut Yankee Council relies on volunteers to promote its mission of preparing young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetime by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Scout Law. Today, nearly 4,600 adults provide leadership and mentoring to Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Venturers. They give countless hours of volunteer time working with the Scouts, take training and provide experience to a strong program. Through the dedication of these many volunteers, we remain the foremost youth program of character development and values-based leadership training in America. To these volunteers we would like to say thank you for your dedication to Scouting.

Scouts and volunteers contributed more than 325,000 hours of community service in 2011, representing over $8.8 million in value to our communities.

Bridgeport and New Haven Urban Scouting grew to serving nearly 900 boys with after school Scouting programs. Our partnerships with the city education systems continues to grow.

50 Explorers attended a week long Cadet Police Academy at University of Hartford.

A SCOUT IS TRUSTWORTHY, LOYAL, HELPFUL, FRIENDLY, COURTEOUS, KIND, OBEDIENT, CHEERFUL, THRIFTY, BRAVE, CLEAN, REVERENT.

Providing Opportunities as Big as All Outdoors

Our camping program had an incredible summer in 2011. An attendance record was set at Camp Sequassen with 1,856 campers attending seven weeks of resident summer camp. Copious merit badge classes and activity centers ensured each camper was able to develop his physical and mental potential while having the time of his life.

At Deer Lake, 279 Cub Scouts attended the first year of resident summer camp operation under the nurturing care of an entirely new staff and utilizing the new shower house, lean-tos and dining hall. Concurrently, the Council's Learning for Life Day Camp provided eight weeks of camping for 640 youths ranging in age from 5 to 14 years old. Both camping programs were operated successfully while often times sharing resources and facilities.

Camp Pomperaug in its first full year back in operation was used by nearly 950 Scouts who ventured to Union, Connecticut for a change to their regular camping venues and were rewarded with unique opportunities to enjoy the camp's woods, trails, lake and upgraded facilities. The camp is making a quick recovery from ten years of closure through the efforts and resources of a dedicated cadre of camp supporters.

Wah Wah Taysee was the venue of choice for campers looking for a chance to test their camping skills. As an undeveloped property, this camp continues to be the perfect spot to get introduced to hiking, backpacking and roughing it in the great outdoors.

Camp Hoyt in Redding, Connecticut was well attended this year with 3,459 Scouts attending weekend and day camp activities in its 175 pristine wooded acres. The rifle range opened this fall, adding another feature for Scouts to enjoy while learning the basics of marksmanship and safe gun handling.

The Board of Directors of the Connecticut Yankee Council provided outstanding stewardship of our $3.6 million operating budget in 2011. We were able to balance our budget for the third consecutive year and make small advances toward paying down our debt.

The Connecticut Yankee Council raises and spends its entire operating budget locally with only a small percentage (1%) going to the National Boy Scouts of America. We extend our thanks to the generous support of our programs and services by our members, individuals and corporations, foundations, and the United Way.

Highlights

$2 Million Estate Gift Ensures Quality Council Properties

The Connecticut Yankee Council was one of four recipients of a $20 million estate left to the Community Foundation of Greater New Haven by the late Richard L. English. Mr. English was very interested in the preservation of open land and birding was very important to him but he was also interested in youth development. He wanted to help young people appreciate wildlife and the environment. Ten percent of the annual earnings has been designated to the Council's capital improvements at our camps.

Friends of Scouting

Scouting has always relied on its members, families and the broader community to support its operating needs. Over 2,400 individuals and local businesses contributed $549,193 to the Friends of Scouting campaign. Our online giving capacity and out-reach improved.

Special Events

The Connecticut Yankee Council organized ten separate special events throughout 2011 honoring local civic and corporate leaders and raising over $423,175. Under the leadership of cochairs Sally Berry and Tina Salute, the Board of Directors organized the "Boots & Suits Gala" to raise funds for capital improvements to our camps. 180 Scouters and guests enjoyed an evening of dining and dancing and netted over $24,000 for capital improvements at our camps.

Popcorn Sales

Scouts in 178 packs, troops, crews and posts went door to door and stood outside storefronts to sell over $775,000 of popcorn. Online sales grew from $39,000 in 2010 to $51,198. The top selling units were Pack 95 Fairfield with $23,740 in sales, Pack 161 Darien with $23,084 in sales and Pack 89 Fairfield with $20,598 in sales.
