

	S	C	O	U	T	S
A	What do the stars in first class badge stand for?	North West is how many degrees?	What is our National Mammal?	What is a sheet bend used for?	At what rank is a scout considered a 'complete scout'?	What is used to treat for blisters?
B	What is the right side of a boat called?	What is the small wood called you use to start a fire?	What is the third point of the outdoor code?	What does the Knot stand for on the bottom of the First Class Badge?	What are the Bill of Rights?	How many Eagle required badges are there?
C	How many white stripes are on an American flag?	Name the 5 'hurry' cases?	What the three common poisonous plants in Connecticut?	What knot is used to start a square lashing?	What does PFD stand for?	What knot is used to start a diagonal lashing?
D	When a flag is in a parade, which side is it on if there is another flag being carried?	What merit badge has a totem pole on a blue background?	In First Aid, what does RICE stand for and when is it used?	What color on the flag stands for vigilance?	When hiking on a street what direction do you face?	What is a sheep shank used for?
E	Who was the first chief scout executive for BSA?	What does White on the American flag represent?	What is another name for an evergreen tree?	What do you call the 3 windings used to tighten a lashing?	What do you call the area where scouts chop or saw wood?	Which position of responsibility does not count for Eagle Rank?
F	What knot forms a loop that does not tighten?	What is given for earning the Env. Sci, Cit in World, and the Soil & Water Conserv. or Fish and Wildlife Management merit badges?	What does COPE stand for?	What are five possible warning signs of a heart attack?	What does the 2nd Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantee?	On a road running North to South which way do you face the blue field on a flag hanging over the roadway?